Amanda Lamb

Amanda Lamb is one of the UK's most recognised lifestyle and property presenters. Amanda is well know for her series: Selling Houses with Amanda Lamb, Beat My Build for Channel 4 and is probably best known as the presenter of the phenomenally successful A Place in the Sun which she presented for 5 years and as the face of Scottish Widows, a relationship that lasted for over 10 years.

Other TV accolades include You Deserve This House for Channel 4, My Flatpack Home and What the Neighbours Did for UKTV Home, Market Kitchen for UKTV, Family Supercooks for UKTV Food and she is also a regular on The Wright Stuff on Five.

Andrew Dymond

Andrew is a founder member of Arden Chambers who advises and represents both public and private sector clients, including local authorities, private registered providers, registered social landlords, private landlords, leaseholders, tenants and the homeless. He is recommended in both Chambers and Partners and the Legal 500 as a leading junior in social housing law. He is Deputy General Editor of the Housing Law Reports, an editor of Arden & Partington's Housing Law and a member of the editorial board of the Journal of Housing Law.

Debbie Franklin ACA CTA

Debbie is the Director of Tax at Peplows Chartered Accountants. She is a Chartered Tax Adviser and a Member of the ICAEW.

Debbie has been advising clients for over 25 years on all aspects of business and financial issues. She works closely with clients and their advisers to offer tailored, practical tax planning solutions and helps businesses to achieve their aspirations and commercial goals.

Debbie leads the firm's services to the property industry and her extensive knowledge in this sector sees her regularly presenting to a number of industry groups around the UK. She also works closely with Gill Fielding, property guru and 'Secret Millionaire', delivering specialist tax advice to property investors.

For those seeking the guidance and tools necessary to succeed in the development and management of their rental property businesses this is an event not to be missed!

Book a place at this event for the opportunity to listen to the speakers, browse a selection of exhibition stands, network with other landlords and get expert advice from a range of services.
