Comment Reasons:

Comment: I have been visiting the occupant since he moved into the property in 2006. I can confirm that the occupant uses the property for his Blacksmith Work. The occupant has had toilet and kitchen facility since then (2006). And that vehicle's, trailers and sundries have been present outside since that date when the occupant moved in. As claimed by the occupant he has been living on site since owning the property. I have been visiting his home and workplace many times over the years. The occupant is a honest hard working man.
